Dear Dr. Richwell,

Our apologies for not returning to you sooner. Thanks for the opportunity to view the TCOM portal.

Based on your correspondence and attached proposal, the College of Metaphysical Studies (TCOM) would not be required to register with the Council as there is no physical site/presence in Barbados. However, it should be noted that prospective students from Barbados can ascertain the recognition status of your institution via the Council's Recognition of Institution and/Programme. This service advises prospective students of the accreditation/recognition status of tertiary educational providers and their programmes of study (face to face, online or blended learning).

The Council hopes that this response answers your query satisfactorily.

Kind Regards,

Valda V. Alleyne (Ms)
